SALVATION ARMY OF LOUDOUN COUNTY PRESENTS CERTIFICATE TO MARC CHINOY

The Salvation Army of Loudoun County recently presented Marc Paul Chinoy, President of The Regis Group, Inc. of Leesburg, Virginia, with the “I am a Shield” award for his dedicated service to the Salvation Army.

The certificate was presented to Mr. Chinoy at a monthly session of the advisory committee of the Loudoun Corp of the Salvation Army in Leesburg, Virginia by Tom Gatewood, chair of the Advisory Board. The session was also attended by representatives of the national Salvation Army leadership.

“Our effort together has resulted in a plan that we are all convinced will lead to significant benefit for our community,” said William Henry, long term Loudoun Corp advisory Board member.

“I am a strong believer in the need for all of us to undertake efforts on behalf of the community, a role that the Salvation Army exemplifies,” Marc Chinoy told the presenting group.

The Loudoun Corp of the Salvation Army has a center in Leesburg, Virginia, which also serves as the collection point for clothing and household articles for donation and thrift sale to the community.

The Regis Group, Inc., headquartered in Leesburg, VA, assists worldwide clients in healthcare, telecommunications, education and the law with planning and internal development.
