

The Regis Group, Inc. Press Release
September 2009

Marc P. Chinoy speaks about Planning during difficult business times

On September 23, Regis President, Marc Paul Chinoy spoke at the Kiwanis Club meeting in Arlington, VA about making the best out of difficult business realities. The title of the message was "Turning the Circle: Planning to Shift Difficult Business Times Into Solid Business Answers."

"Planning is essential for not just the survival, but the success of any business," stated Mr. Chinoy.

Chinoy walked the group through the importance of taking the time to plan for the future, and how having the right strategic plan and executing it effectively can be the lifeboat during tough times.

For more information about the Kiwanis Club please contact Ed Nolan at 703.533.2953 or via email at ecnolan@hotmail.com.

For more information about The Regis Group, Inc. please contact Claudia Barrientos at 703.777.2233 or via email at infotrg@regisgroup.com.